

I support XM radio's broadcasting of weather and traffic even though it is not available in my area at this time in my area a service is important to persons traveling into areas where the service is broadcast.